

Consolidation of media outlet ownership by fewer corporations has harmed consumer's interest by providing less competition, less diversity, fewer political and ideological perspectives and more conservative programming. I urge you to limit media ownership by individual entities and reverse past deregulation in regards to this matter. Your time and expertise are greatly appreciated.